

Hockey Alberta Coach Education Program Updates 2010-2011

1. Speak Out/Respect in Sport Coach Level

- 1.1. Speak Out clinics will no longer be scheduled and will be replaced with the Respect in Sport - Coach online program, to be accessed through the Hockey Alberta website. (Please note that RIS – Parent is not equivalent and does not meet Hockey Alberta Bylaws and Regulations!)
- 1.2. Hockey Alberta bylaw Section F as pertaining to coach requirements will now read as follows:
"All teams registering with Hockey Alberta must have one (1) member of the registered team officials achieve Speak Out or Respect in Sport Certification by December 31 and be on the bench at all games."

2. Intro to Coach

- 2.1. In order to better serve those that serve the athletes, ITC will now contain a 1.5 hour on ice session. This session will be mandatory and coaches must attend both on ice and off ice portions of the clinic to receive certification. MHA hosting requests will only be granted to MHA's who intend to host both the off ice and on ice portion of the clinic.

3. NCCP Coach level

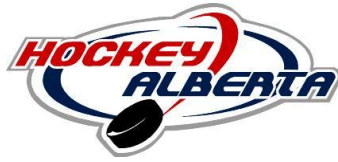

- 3.1. Removal of Speak Out certification option
 - 3.1.1. Coaches attending Coach level clinics will no longer be able to receive Speak Out certification through completion of the coach level post task.
- 3.2. Elimination of Coach Post Task, replaced with Certification through Specialty Skills clinic
 - 3.2.1. In 2010-11 Coaches will no longer receive Coach level certification through completion of the coach level post task. All coaches who attend an NCCP Coach level clinic will become Coach qualified. To gain NCCP Coach Level Certification, coaches must then attend a Specialty Skills clinic.
 - 3.2.2. Coaches that achieved NCCP Coach Level Qualification prior to the 2010-2011 season may complete the Coach Level post task to receive certification. Coaches will have the 2010-11 season as a grace period. Coaches must be completed this process by September 1st 2011
